

The Music Series of Roger Williams University presents:

Music for My Friends

A Concert Gala presenting the compositions of retiring
PROFESSOR OF MUSIC WILL AYTON performed by his friends, colleagues, and students.

Will Ayton founded the Music Program at Roger Williams University 35 years ago, and was a primary instigator of the current Music Major and Minor. Will's compositions have been performed, published, and recorded around the globe. This concert will feature his music played by friends who have enjoyed exploring the Ayton musical universe for many years.

Performers include:

Will Ayton

The RWU Faculty Trio

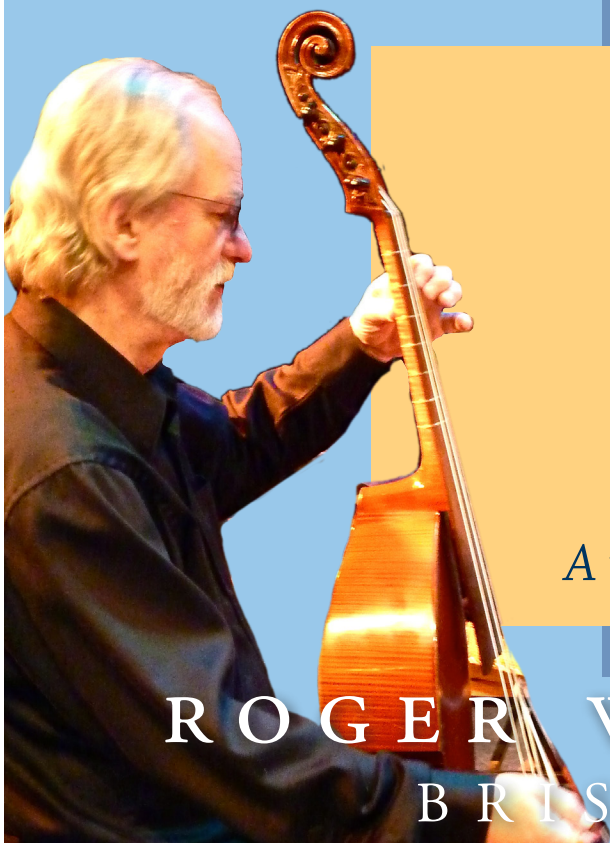

Mair & Martel – mandolin & guitar

Sonatina Quartet – a family of recorders

Enigmatica – a plucked string ensemble

The RWU Collegium, director Catherine Hawkes

The RWU Chorus, director Jonathan Richter

Sunday, April 27, 2014

GHH Atrium

2:00 p.m.

Admission Free

A reception in Professor Ayton's honor will follow the performance.

ROGER WILLIAMS UNIVERSITY
BRISTOL, RHODE ISLAND