AMGuSS Registration Form

June 17-22, 2024

on the waterfront campus of Roger Williams University, in Bristol, Rhode Island

The American Mandolin & Guitar Summer School

was founded in 1986 to promote the art of ensemble playing for guitar and mandolin family instruments. Each session combines classical music with other music styles in orchestra and chamber ensemble settings. AMGuSS presents a fun supportive week for improving musicianship and broadening musical horizons.

Play in the American Mandolin & Guitar Orchestra

Daily rehearsals, sectionals, and a concert performance. Music for 2023 included works by Corelli, Dowland, Pixinguinha, George Gershwin, Catherine Hawkes, and Marilynn Mair.

Learn about decision-making in a small ensemble, in groups of 4-7 students, created and coached daily by our faculty and guest artists. Ensemble choices for 2023 included music from: Bach, Telemann, Haydn, Brazil, and Finland.

Broaden your musical horizons and knowledge, through inspiring workshops, concerts, and jam sessions.

On-campus room & board options are available in single and double dormitory rooms in small suites. Meals are served cafeteria-style in an award-winning dining hall, with options for vegetarian, gluten-free and other diets.

Registration is limited to 35 players.

There are full-tuition scholarships available for 18 to 30-year-olds. We do not have the facilities to accept students under 18.
